SPEAKER GARNER ISSUES STATEMENT ON RELIEF PLANS

EXPRESSES HOPE THAT AD- MINISTRATION WILL CO- OPERATE IN PASSAGE

WASHINGTON, May 19. (P)—Speaker Garner today in a formal statement made three suggestions to relieve the economic situation in the country and said he hoped the administration would co-operate with congress in enacting them into legislation.

His program called for the issuance of one billion dollars in bonds for a government building program, broadening the base of the Reconstruction Finance corporation to add one billion dollars to its present two billion dollar capital, and passage of the Huddleston bill to place $100,000,000 in the hands of President Hoover to be used in relieving "extreme suffering in any section of the country."

Garner said he was "unalterably opposed to the dole, but it must be apparent that before congress adjourns some real effort must be made toward taking care of the unemployment situation as well as the people who are in physical distress as a result of lack of food and shelter."

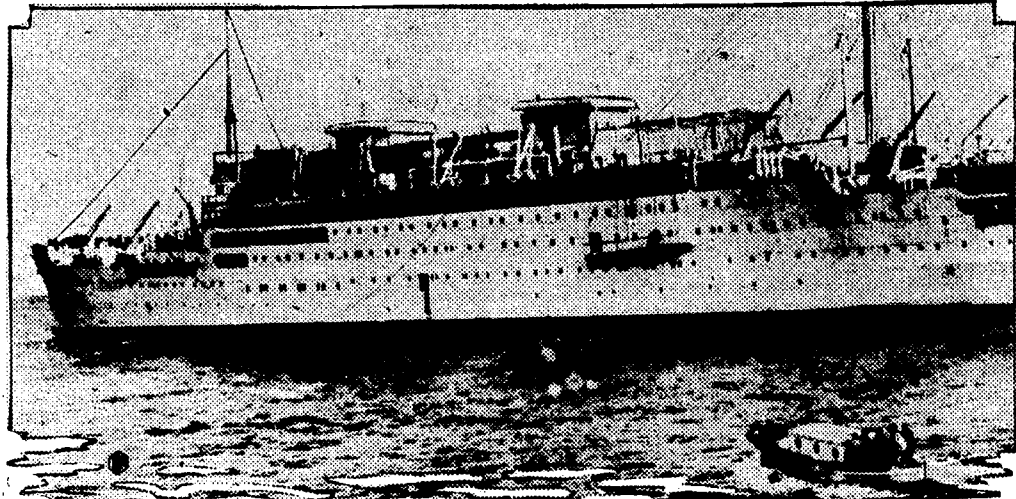

Garner said it was evident that the situation could not be remedied by international negotiations to remove barriers and restrictions upon international commerce, since the present administration will not permit legislation of this nature.

"Therefore, we must consider what, if anything, can be done to improve the situation by direct action of the government," Garner issued the formal statement from the speaker's office after numerous conferences with various groups in his party and members of the republican party.

His suggestions follow:
"First: I would pass what is

Seven other ships rushed to the rescue of the stricken ship and took off some of the passengers, said to number 600, besides the major portion of the crew. The liner was en route from China to Marseilles on her maiden voyage. Loss of life in the disaster was estimated at from 75 to 300.

Negro Facing Death In Chair After Midnight

HUNTSVILLE, May 19.—(P)—James Williams, 30, negro, today faced electrocution in the penitentiary here shortly after midnight for the killing of Joe West, Hunt county farmer, last October.

Prison officials said the execution would be carried out unless Gov. R. S. Sterling intervened. The pardon board gave the governor an adverse report in Williams case.

West was shot to death as he rose from his bed to resist an intrusion in his room. Williams admitted burglarizing West's home, but said he shot only to frighten West, a former employer.

The negro was convicted at Greenville of murder.

Sixth Victim of Crossing Crash Died Thursday

BEAUMONT, May 19.—(P)—Mattie Lee Freeman, 16, sixth victim of an accident in which an automobile with nine passengers was struck by a Kansas City Southern passenger train 10 miles south of here Tuesday evening, died at 5 o'clock this morning.

Joint funeral services were held for Miss Freeman and the other five victims here this morning and the bodies sent to the Camp Ground cemetery in Tyler county for burial.

CLAIMED FOUR MEN INVOLVED IN BABY KIDNAPPING PLANS

LETTER TELLING OF KID-NAPPING AND WHERE TO FIND CHILD IGNORED

TRENTON, N. J., May 19.—(P)—Chief of Police William Walter disclosed today that ten days after the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby he received an anonymous letter from Buffalo, N. Y., saying the baby might be found by following the Lindbergh telephone lines. He turned the letter over to state police.

The baby's body was found a week ago near the special police telephone lines to the Lindbergh garage.

NEWARK, N. J., May 19.—(P)—The Newark Evening News said today that 10 days after the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby Chief of Police William Walter of Trenton received an anonymous letter directing police to "follow the Lindbergh telephone wires" and the baby and "the three other men" would be found.

The body of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby was found a week ago close to the main road from Hopewell to Princeton. Along that road ran special wires laid by police conducting the investigation from the Lindbergh garage.

"Chief Walter wrote 'attention' across the face of the letter, the paper said, and forwarded it to the police at Princeton. He never received any report as to investigation of the letter."

The News said Chief Walter favored the theory that the letter might have been written by one

SENATOR TYDINGS ATTACKED TARIFF ON OIL THURSDAY

ALLEGED HOOVER CAMPAIGN MANAGER CALLED MASTER MIND FOR OIL TARIFF

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(P)—C. Easton Slomp, called by Senator Tydings, "one of the managers of Mr. Hoover's campaign," was described by the Marylander in a debate today as "the master mind for this oil tariff."

Assailing the tariff in the heated dispute which arose in the senate after a threat had been made to insist on opening up the whole tariff question, Tydings said "the locust swarm of lobbyists is very close to the highest powers of this government."

"I wouldn't be surprised if when we got back to where their inspiration comes from," the Maryland Democrat said, "that the Standard Oil Company wouldn't be seen approaching the capitol through that 'halsom'."

Tydings said other lobbyists for the oil tariff had been Wirt Franklin of Ardmore, Okla., and Mr. Hitchcock, a former postmaster general.

He said Slomp, who was secretary to President Coolidge, was "sent over to Paris" and given an attractive position there "as a reward" for his activities in Mr. Hoover's campaign.

"That's one of the men the president calls a locust swarm of lobbyists," he claimed. "He's been

Over Hundred Dead as Result Religious Riots

BOMBAY, May 19.—(P)—Total casualties in the week's Hindu-Muslim riots here rose to 105 dead and 278 injured today when severe clashes occurred in the mill area north of the city in which six were killed and 30 injured.

The trouble started when Hindu mill workers attacked a group of Moslem pedestrians.

The police fired on the rioters. Forty mills were closed and 50 workers arrested.

The rest of the city was fairly quiet.

SEARCH-LIGHT IS TURNED ON CANON BY POLICE TODAY

DEAN H. DOBSON-PEACOCK
REFUSES TO GO TO HOPE-
WELL FOR QUERY

NORFOLK, Va., May 19.—(P)—The search-light of police inquiry which brought from John Hughes Curtis a confession of deception in his role of negotiator in the Lindbergh kidnapping case was swung today in the direction of an Episcopal clergyman in a probe for further information.

The Very Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock, accused by Curtis of urging him on against his will to continue the far-fetched search for men and boats which did not exist, has been requested to give interviews to both New Jersey and local officials.

The minister, who described as "absolutely untrue" the charge made by his imprisoned associate, said he was ready at any time to give "all information in my possession" pertaining to the case, but he indicated he was not willing to go to New Jersey to do this.

In reply to a request that he go to Hopewell, Dean Dobson-Peacock telegraphed Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the New Jersey state police, that "I stand ready at such time as you may select to meet at Norfolk or you or Governor Moore's accredited representative and will fully and freely give all information in my possession pertaining to the subject."

In the meanwhile, Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Arnold of Norfolk said he planned to interview the rector of the fashionable Christ Church as a part of his investigation to determine if any Virginia law had been violated. He said "conversations" he had with Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, retired, the third mem-

Payroll Records Of House Planned To Be Kept Open

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(P)—The Warren resolution to keep open for inspection the payroll records of the house of representatives was approved unanimously today by the accounts committee.

Chairman Warren said he would bring it before the house tomorrow for action. Speaker Garner and Representative Snell of New York, republican leader, are reported to be in favor of the measure.

Its purpose is to make available at all times the names of relatives of members of the house who are on the payroll. It was introduced by Warren, a North Carolina democrat.

JAFSIE GOES TO WEST POINT MEET WITH MAP EXPERT

MYSTERY ACTION OF IM-PORTANT FIGURES IN LIND-BERGH BABY CASE

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 19.—(P)—Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafsie" of the Lindbergh kidnaping case, arrived in West Point late today and went into conference with Colonel R. G. Alexander, a member of the faculty of the United States Military Academy.

In his own car, trailed by two New York city detectives in another automobile, Dr. Condon drove to West Point from his home in the Bronx, munching sandwiches and studying maps en route.

On his arrival at the academy he held a long whispered conference with the two detectives. They appeared to be studying maps.

Then one of them got into Condon's car and drove off with "Al" Reich, his chauffeur, Condon apparently directing them where to go.

Dr. Condon then hailed a passing motorcycle with a side car, and the other detective got into the side car, directing the man on the motorcycle to follow Condon's car.

Dr. Condon then went into conference with Colonel Alexander at the latter's home on the academy grounds.

Colonel Alexander is head of the department of map-drawing at the academy and was said to have in his home a large collection of maps of the whole eastern seaboard.

Dr. Condon drove to West Point by way of Ossining, where, it had been said, he had inspected the pictures in the rogues' gallery at Sing Sing, but he did not stop at the prison.

Before going to West Point today he paid two visits to a police station in the Bronx. He turned home from the first visit, he received a telegram and then immediately returned to the police station.

GAS DISTRIBUTION COMPANY HOLDINGS EVALUATION READY

ENGINEERS COMPLETE SUR-VEY ORDERED FOR TEXAS
RAILROAD COMMISSION

AUSTIN, May 19.—(P)—The Texas railroad commission was told today that it would cost $47,351.15 to reproduce Texas properties of the Lone Star Gas company, in a revaluation report submitted by engineers employed to evaluate the concern's properties for rate-making purposes.

In the inventory were approximately 4000 miles of transmitting and gathering lines and 450 gas wells. The company serves approximately 250 towns with domestic and industrial gas.

The purpose of the revaluation report was for the purpose of fixing fair rates for consumers that the railroad commission ordered the evaluation at a cost of approximately $50,000.

The inventory did not include oil and gas properties of the company, those who made the report estimated the Sooner State holdings were worth from 10 to 15 per cent of the Texas total. It had not been definitely determined if the Oklahoma evaluation would be undertaken.

A number of Texas towns and cities served by the company had protested charges for gas to consumers and undertook to arbitrarily reduce them by ordinance.

The distributing companies, served by the Lone Star concern, had appealed from those actions to the

Aids Search For Baby Killers

After several hours of futile scrutiny of hundreds of rogues' gallery pictures in an effort to identify the man to whom he paid the Lindbergh ransom money, Dr. John F. Condon ("Jafsie") is shown as he left police headquarters at New York with detectives assigned to protect him from possible gang vengeance. Dr. Condon received a personal letter of thanks from Colonel Lindbergh for his efforts in trying to secure the return of the baby.

NORFOLK HOAXER NOT CONNECTED IN ACTUAL KIDNAPING

NEW JERSEY OFFICIALS
PLAN TO PRESS QUESTION-ING NORFOLK MINISTER

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 19.—(P)—John H. Curtis, jailed Lindbergh hoaxer, today was exonerated of any connection with the actual kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby or collection of ransom, as New Jersey officials pressed plans for questioning his companion, the Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock at Norfolk, Va., concerning his activities as negotiator in the case.

The clergyman, revealed yesterday as having flown to Hopewell March 28 to request Col. Lindbergh to deposit $25,000 in a Norfolk bank as "earnest money" in connection with alleged negotiations with the kidnapers, declined to come to Hopewell but said he would give all information to the police at Norfolk.

Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey immediately announced he favored "sending someone to Norfolk to see what he has to say" and indicated a representative probably would be named by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police. Col. Schwarzkopf said he was "very anxious" to confront Curtis with Peacock.

At the same time, it was learned that ten days after the kidnaping an anonymous letter was received by Chief of Police William Walter of Trenton directing that if the Lindbergh telephone wire was followed the baby and "the three other men" would be found.

It was recalled that special wires laid by police from the Lindbergh garage run along the main road between Hopewell and Princeton, near which the body of the Lindbergh baby was found a week ago.

Chief Walter was quoted as hold-

BROOKLYN SCHOOL TEACHER SOUGHT IN CONNECTION RANSOM

WOMAN INSTRUCTOR MISS-ING FROM SCHOOL ROOM
HAD TALKED TO JAFSIE

NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—Mrs. Mary G. Ford, Brooklyn school teacher, for whom Assistant District Attorney Jacobs of King's county, Brooklyn, said he was looking in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping case, was in his office late this afternoon, being questioned.

J. Sullivan, head of the detective division, acknowledged at police headquarters this afternoon that police some time ago received an anonymous letter stating that Mrs. Ford had the Lindbergh baby at her home. An investigation by police, however, he said, disclosed the report was unfounded.

Sullivan said he understood Mrs. Ford was being questioned today about a lacy matter and not in connection with the Lindbergh case.

Both Mrs. Ford and her daughter, whose name was not disclosed, were questioned by officials of the district attorney's office. They were first questioned in separate rooms and then taken into one room for questioning together.

This continued for more than an hour without any statement being made by the officials as to the results of the examination.

NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—Assistant District Attorney Ralph K. Jacobs of King's county, Brooklyn, today he had sent out two detectives to find Mrs. Mary G. Ford, Brooklyn public school teacher and "bring her in for questioning in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping and ransom payment."

Mrs. Ford, Jacobs said, was absent today from public school 67, Brooklyn, where she teaches. He said he told the detectives to topograph to 53 Riverside Drive, Manhattan, where he said she rented an apartment two weeks ago.

Jacobs said he was informed Mrs. Ford paid $100 for a month's rent, in advance, with $20, $10 and $5 bills.

He sent for her, he said, on information given him by the public school authorities and after questioning the principal of the school where she teaches, Frederick Schoedel, principal of the school this morning, and that Schoedel made the following statement:

"Several weeks ago a telephone

Officers Probe Extortion Plot Beaumont Widow

BEAUMONT, May 19.—(P)—The "Jafsie" method of contact by newspaper advertisements was used by an extortionist who attempted to obtain $5,000 in gold from Mrs. J. W. Garth, wealthy widow here, it was learned today when one of the notes was made public by police.

The revelation was made following arrest of a suspect who had been watched by police, when he was found at the point where a suit case purporting to hold the $5,000 in gold coins had been dropped from the Garth automobile.

The ad, unnoticed generally, ran Sunday, May 14, in answer to one of the series of notes received by Mrs. Garth. It read "Everything OK, my son will deliver suit-case Mrs. G."

The several notes demanded

REDUCED GOVERNMENT COST NECESSARY TO REVIVAL OF BUSINESS SCHWAB STATES

NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of Bethlehem Steel Corporation, today told his fellow manufacturers that "the only way to reduce costs of government and credit expansion were necessary to business recovery."

Mr. Schwab's address made before the American Iron and Steel Institute of which he is president, drew prompt endorsement from William A. Irvin, recently elected president of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Irvin, in a hearty accord with Mr. Schwab's said, "Mr. Irvin asserted when introduced to the meeting by the Bethlehem chairman he also said that although at this time 'no man can say when the tide will turn, we are filled with hope and have every confidence in the future.'"

Referring to public expenditures, which Schwab had declared "must be adjusted to the ability of the public to pay," Irvin said, "We must eventually pay for every dollar of expenditures authorized by our public officials."

NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—Charles M. Schwab today reaffirmed his optimism for the future but asserted that costs of government must be reduced and existing credit jams broken before business could revive.

In his semi-annual presidential address to the American Iron and Steel Institute, Mr. Schwab, chairman of Bethlehem Steel corporation, said "a most important" prerequisite for restoration of public confidence was "the demonstration by federal and local governments that they can and will live within their incomes under stress of necessity."

"The federal budget must be balanced in order to protect our national credit," he said, "and in view of the vastly depleted ability of the public to pay, it must be balanced chiefly through the measure of reduced expenditures."

The steel industry, he declared,

TWO MEN NAMED IN CONFESSION FOUND WANTED NEWS STORY

PHOTOGRAPHER AND NEWS
BUREAU HEAD CONFERRED
WITH SHIPBUILDER

NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—References in the Lindbergh confession of John Hughes Curtis to two men not fully identified were cleared up today.

In explaining his claim he had been offered money for his "knowledge of the Lindbergh case or pictures of the baby," Curtis said:

"Mr. Twin and Fox offered me money."

Although the identity of the "Mr. Twin" was not known immediately, the "Fox" reference was generally interpreted as referring to the Fox Film Company. The Fox Film Company is in no way involved and this correction is emphasized.

Today Sam Fox, a Norfolk, Va., photographer, said he had acted for a news photograph syndicate in offering Curtis $2,500 for exclusive pictures of the Lindbergh baby, or for enabling him to photograph the baby before anyone else.

To which, he said, Curtis replied: "It is hard for me to say at this time what I can do."

P. E. Turin, manager of the advertising board of the Norfolk-Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce said he had made no offer to Curtis, but that the shipbuilder had broached to him, as manager of the Norfolk-Portsmouth news bureau, suggestions of remuneration for information concerning his negotiations.

Kidnaping Bill Approved Today By Committee

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(P)—The Cochrane Bill providing for the death penalty or life imprisonment for kidnapers was approved today by a House judiciary sub-committee, headed by Representative Montague, (D., Va.) recommended to the full committee that the measure be submitted to the House for action as early as possible.

The bill, introduced by Representative Cochran (D., Mo.) forbids the transportation of any kidnapped person in interstate or foreign commerce.

It would leave to the discretion of the judge whether the death penalty or imprisonment from one year to life would be imposed on defendants convicted of abducting persons who are held for ransom for either money or other consideration.

WOMAN CASHIER RELEASED AFTER ROBBERS ESCAPE

PETROLIA, May 19.—(P)—An intensive search for two well-dressed robbers who looted the Continental State Bank here of $1,000 yesterday and kidnapped the cashier, Miss Mary Frazier, is under way today in Texas.

Miss Frazier was alone in the bank when the holdup took place. The robbers, after scooping up the money, debated as to whether they should lock her in the vault or take her away with them. They finally decided on the latter course and four hours she was forced to ride with them over side roads as they sought to hide their trail from pursuers.

Finally they released her near Ringgold, about 20 miles southeast of Petrolia. The robbery was discovered some time after the holdup men escaped. A bank customer walked into the building and found the cashier missing. He immediately telephoned the president, H. W. Perkins, and a search was started for the robbers.

PETROLIA, May 19.—(P)—Miss Mary Frazier, assistant cashier of the Continental State Bank of Petrolia, was released unharmed by two men yesterday after being kidnapped during a raid on the bank.

Entering the bank during the noon hour, when Miss Frazier alone was on duty, the men scooped up $1,000 in cash and fled in an automobile toward the Oklahoma line, forcing the young woman to accompany them.

After four hours, during which they traveled only 20 miles over side roads, the robbers released Miss Frazier five miles south of Ringgold in Montague county. She said they treated her courteously. Search for the robbers continues.

Tax Bill

Referring to Hitchcock, he said, "Senator can walk out of this chamber without being pulled to one side and entreated to vote for this oil tariff."

"Mr. Franklin, I am told, is likely to be a Republican candidate for United States senator from Oklahoma," he remarked.

The reference to "Mr. Hitchcock" was to Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general under President Taft.

Tariff Features In Tax Bill Opposed

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(P)—The senate squared off today to settle the controversy over inclusion of four tariffs in the billion dollar revenue raising bill.

The tariff coalition claimed it would win on all four—oil, coal, sugar and lumber—by a narrow margin. The test vote was on the oil import tax of one-half a cent a gallon on crude petroleum with compensatory rates on by-products, first duty to be voted on.

The beer legalization issue as a revenue raising proposition was decisively squelched yesterday. The proposal of Senator Tydings (D., Md.) for 2.75 per cent beer, taxed at 24 cents a gallon to finance a $1,500,000,000 public construction bond issue, was defeated, 61 to 24. The proposition of Senator Bingham, (R., Conn.) to legalize a 4 per cent beer was rejected 60 to 23.

With beer out of the way and the tariff issues about to be determined, leaders of the bi-party coalition supporting the bill to balance the budget prepared to speed the legislation to passage, clearing the way for the even more controversial economy bill and re-beat.

Convinced that the best way to speed progress was to keep the four import taxes in the bill, Senator Watson of Indiana, republican leader, took command of the tariff coalition last night and out of many conferences developed the prediction of success.

Two Mexicans Were Injured When Auto Struck Their Wagon

Two Mexicans, a man and a woman, whose names have not been learned, were injured shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday night when an automobile crashed into the rear of the wagon on which they were riding on highway 75, about a mile north of the underpass.

The woman was reported by spectators to have complained of severe pain and was supposed to have been taken to a hospital by the driver of the car striking the wagon. A check of the hospitals and doctors' offices failed to reveal treatment for her. Her husband was given first aid at the P. and S. hospital and later went home.

The wagon was demolished, but the team was uninjured.

has put its own house in order and the federal reserve system is doing its part. "But, above all, the federal government which is the heart of our national structure, must balance its budget and restore confidence there. From there, confidence, which is the life-blood of trade, will be transfused into our retailers of finance—the banks—to reestablish that faith which is so necessary to the flow of credit. "God speed the day!"

"I am still an optimist, even amid present conditions. I continue to have hope and belief in our future because I have lived so long and have seen our people work their way out of so many trying situations. In this country we have great resources and a great heritage."

"We as taxpayers cannot afford to carry in our costs," he continued, "the burden of taxation that we could bear in the years 1925 to 1930. The burden of local taxes under present conditions of business becomes self-evident when we realize that in some of the communities where our steel plants are located the local taxes total as high as 10 per cent of our cost of production."

"I appreciate the difficulties which beset our public officials. We, as taxpayers, have demanded these huge increases in budgets which, in the main, reflect a higher standard of living."

The inescapable fact remains, nevertheless, that in the present emergency all governmental expenditures must be adjusted to the ability of the public to pay. Moreover, there is a considerable range of possible economies which can be put into effect, such as the elimination of unnecessary bureaus, greater efficiency in personnel, more efficient analysis of costs. The revenue of our more prosperous times no longer exists, and government must cut according to its cloth."

Mr. Schwab said steel employers hoped the wage reductions would be compensated for by improved employment.

The best the steel industry has been able to do so far is "slacken the process of disintegration."

Little Change in Conditions
NEW YORK, May 19.—(P)—Leading steel manufacturers, here for the semi-annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel institute, today reported little change in business conditions, but it was noted that operations had at least stopped declining and that prices were holding.

"The whole trouble today is at Washington," said G. N. Verity, chairman of the American Rolling Mill company. "If we can get things settled there and then settle the reparations problem we will be in a position to accomplish something."

H. G. Dalton, chairman of Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, said the increase in oil prices should eventually help the steel pipe business.

Tom G. Girdler, president of Republic Steel, said there was little volume of business, but pointed out that automobile orders were a little larger.

Laten Stanberry, director of the gas utilities division of the commission, received the report. He said it would be submitted to the commission within the next few days. Until that time, details of the report will not be released, he stated.

The report was submitted by Hawley, Freese and Nichols of Fort Worth; Rodgers, Smith and Company of San Antonio, and the J. A. Phillips company of Houston.

The company carried the reproduction value of its properties, including holdings in Texas and Oklahoma, on its books at $72,182,299, data obtained by the commission showed.

Net earnings of the company for the year ending Dec. 31, 1931, were listed at $4,910,000 and at $5,699,316 for 1930 on books of the company. These figures did not represent deductions made for depreciation, depletion, interest, income tax charges, and other operating expenses.

Revenue of the company for 1931 was given at 93.4 per cent of the five-year average. Operating expenses of the company for 1931 were listed as 113.79 per cent of the five-year average.

Records of the company showed that industrial gas sold during 1931 aggregated 17,604,531,000 cubic feet, compared with 22,942,507,500 cubic feet in 1930. Domestic gas sales in 1931 were 17,023,686,700 cubic feet and in 1930, 17,974,266,500 cubic feet.

PAINS

QUIT COMING

"When I was a girl, I suffered periodically with terrible pains in my back and sides. Often I would bend almost double with the intense pain. This would last for hours and I could get no relief.

"I tried almost everything that was recommended to me, but found nothing that would help until I began taking Cardui. My mother thought it would be good for me, so she got a bottle of Cardui and started me taking it. I soon improved. The bad spells quit coming. I was soon in normal health."

CORNICANA, TEX., MAY 20, 1932.
GRIEF, HORROR, WRATH

The heart of humanity bleeds in sympathetic suffering with Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh. Tears and sobs came as mothers read the story of the finding of the body of the long-sought boy and seemed to hear the little one's cry stifled by a blow that crushed out life.
 Seldom does tragedy strike to every heart as in this case.

The horror at the kidnapping, at the stealing of a baby, out of its crib, is intensified by the story of the murder now revealed. What sort of devilish fiends have humans become that such barbarities can be committed? There is terror at the thought that no home is safe, no life is sacred.

And there is wrath. Not mere passion and flush of anger, but deliberate, determined wrath that will not be satisfied until this wicked thing shall be avenged and its perpetrators punished without mercy. While the return of the baby in safety was in any degree possible, that was a first consideration. Now there is no occasion for the leash.
 The police genius of the country is challenged to seek the trail and follow it to the end. It is likely to be a difficult task, and yet the lead may open as unexpectedly as came the finding of the baby's body.

But whenever the end shall be reached, whether soon or late, the wrath of a righteously angered nation ought to be cherished against that time so that there shall be no softening of the stroke of law. Whether this crime shall prove to be the work of professional gangsters, or a matter of local degradation, it should arouse the whole people to an insistent demand that law shall be enforced, respected and obeyed. For this crime, whoever may have been its perpetrator is only the extreme sequence of the recklessness of human life which is the spirit of gangdom.

UNDERCONSUMPTION.

There are phases to this depression which have not been present before. It has been described as a depression of plenty, while most slumps that have gone before have been periods of famine. That is why the usual optimistic declarations which "point with pride" to the country's tremendous resources and recall that every former crisis has been surmounted fall on rather incredulous ears.

Basically the trouble is underconsumption, a fact only vaguely understood up to this time. There has been overproduction because there has not been sufficient mass buying power to absorb the products of industry and agriculture.
 This condition has been aggravated by adding further to the country's productive capacity.

After it was too late to undo the harm already done it was realized that under-consumption was brought about by credit inflation and profit greed. The distribution of income became too unbalanced and finally cut seriously into mass markets.

Whether prices have been sufficiently adjusted to bring back markets on the basis of lower wages and reduced employment remains to be seen. There is now a differential in favor of average wage rates, but actual earnings tell a different story in many lines.
 With many out of work, all markets suffer.

And in a couple of weeks we'll probably all be complaining about heat brought.

A MUCH OVER-RATED ACHIEVEMENT

I shot a golf ball up and up.
 It fell and landed in the cup.
 My caddy said: "You've went an'
 gone
 An' got yourself a hole in one."
 Good friends came running from afar,
 Shouting: "A lucky dog you are!
 You'll get free stuff to drink and smoke.
 In recognition of the stroke.

"Right to your door they'll carve a trail
 With sarsaparilla, ginger ale,
 Golf balls and clubs and sweaters,
 too,
 For holes in one they always do!"

Unto my sorrow now I find
 The ad boys are no longer kind;
 Instead of goods and silver plate,
 They send a nice certificate.

No ginger ale; no cigarettes;
 No lending lamps of smoking sets.
 Are given now for holes in one.
 The good old days are dead and
 gone.

The hole in one you strive to make
 Must now be done for virtue's sake
 And mention in some book next fall,
 But that is absolutely all!

"THE WRITINGS OF GEORGE WASHINGTON."

The United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission announced that four volumes of the set of approximately 25 volumes of the Definitive Edition of the Writings of George Washington, are now ready for distribution. This publication of a complete collection of Washington's personal, military and state papers has been one of the major activities which Congress assigned the Federal Bicentennial Commission, as part of the nation's honors to Washington during this Two Hundredth year since his birth.

Nothing like this comprehensive edition of the Washington writings has been attempted heretofore, partly because private publishing houses recoiled at the expense. Fifty years after Washington's death, Jared Sparks, then president of Harvard, issued an edition of 12 volumes, in which he omitted numerous passages and "improved" Washington's diction in others. Sixty years after the Sparks edition, Worthington C. Ford brought out another 14 volumes, taken directly from the Washington manuscripts. But as Washington left a larger number of papers than any other President, those editions, large as they are, contain less than 50 per cent of the whole, represented in 400 folders in the Library of Congress.

As pointed out by Dr.
 John C. Fitzpatrick, editor of this great compilation and noted authority on Washington's writings, "the lack of a complete publication of Washington's letters has made possible the slanderous belittlement of his character by present-day writers. . . . In one way we are indebted to Sparks and Ford for the hundreds of biographies of Washington now available. . . . The pity of it is, however, that most of these biographies, so unsatisfactory because of their lack of complete information, have been read with avidity by the American public and so have been responsible for the vast amount of existing misconception regarding Washington. . . . It is not surprising therefore, that one of our present day eminent historians, John Bach McMaster, should have stated that George Washington is an unknown man."

The present Bicentennial edition of Washington Writings, says Dr. Fitzpatrick, is not only an honor to the first American, but will enable America to understand her own history more clearly,
 for the formative period of the United States is so enmeshed with the life of Washington that it is impossible to obtain a clear picture of the founding of the Nation without full knowledge of George Washington, the man himself, his personal as well as his public life.

The Bicentennial edition will now make this available. It will contain all the papers included in the Sparks and Ford editions, all the papers in the Library of Congress, besides many letters and groups of letters in the possession of various libraries, historical societies, State archives, and private owners. In fact Washington papers have been found in every State of the Union and in nearly

THE TWO-THIRDS RULE.

Friends of Governor
 Roosevelt are talking about the possible repeal of the rule which requires a vote of two-thirds of the delegates to nominate a candidate for the presidency. Agitation in favor of the repeal of this rule is not new. The friends of Champ Clark, who had a majority of the delegates in the 1912 convention, tried to get it repealed, but failed. The attempt has failed every time it has been made.

If the two-thirds rule should be repealed it would be necessary to repeal the unit rule also. Under that rule the vote of the delegate from a state is cast as a unit in accordance with the will of the party organization. For example, if the Democrats of Pennsylvania have elected 56 Roosevelt delegates and 20 Smith delegates could decide that the vote of the state should be cast as a unit for Roosevelt. The purpose of the two-thirds rule is to make it certain that the nominee is the choice of a majority of the delegates the desires of a certain proportion of whom are suppressed by the unit rule.

SURPLUS.

Famines are annoying and other shortages that encourage profiteering are inconvenient, but it is the surplus, rather than the shortage, that troubles this generation.

There is the surplus of farm products. It is the root of the agricultural problem, which inflicts upon the farmer the hated mortgage and upon the public the pes-tiferous and loquacious politician.

Since the birth of the general store and corner drug store, the race has been burdened with a surplus of new and old calendars. During the annual calendar distribution period, there is space only for calendars in the postoffice box, store packages and waste basket and on the library table.

Accumulated safety razor blades provide another problem in surpluses. You cannot sell them, you cannot give them away, and you dare not throw them away for fear someone will slice off a finger.

Another deluge the prophets failed to reckon with is the surplus supply of paper matches. There is always a dreadful pile of half-used folders somewhere about the house and per corollary, there is always a domestic situation that is anything but pleasant.

Why 20 matches in a folder always outlast 20 cigarettes in a pack has not been satisfactorily explained, neither can anyone account for the present epidemic of paper-match advertising campaigns. No longer is there a legitimate

REFRIGERATION.

A combination of science, invention, transportation and public education makes an agricultural opportunity and improves public health.
 Trade in fresh fruits and vegetables has more than doubled during the past half dozen years. The United States Department of Agriculture draws the conclusion from a survey in the 11 largest cities of the country.

Methods of refrigeration and improved facilities for transporting perishable food stuffs have enlarged the marketing area for every agricultural district in the United States. At the same time these developments were in progress, physicians, educationalists and health authorities were utilizing the marvelous modern facilities for publicity to make known the health-giving properties of a fruit and vegetable diet. Results have been "highly profitable," says the announcement. And the "profit" may be extended on the ledger to the credit of many departments of general welfare.

Probably before Noah took to the ark he had said everything he had laid aside for a rainy day.

 name of Roosevelt, Baker and Young probably stands for Democrat.

East Texas Singers Association To Meet In Mexia June 24-26

KEMP, May 17.—(Spl.)—The largest attendance ever had by the East Texas Singers' Association in their annual conventions is expected to occur in the city of Mexia, on June 24, 25, 26, next.

The president and secretary of the association, J. O. Sessions, Ker-ens, and L. L. Jeter, Kemp, report that they are in close touch with the Mexican Chamber of Commerce, American Legion and service clubs and are assured of a splendid reception, together with an exceptionally fine program.

This convention is the mecca for lovers of the best in sacred song service. From all over Texas as the members of the association come; the song writer, the leader, group singers, local and professional, where a thousand voices, well trained, blend in harmonious acclaim. Truly, it will be a fine place to spend three days of your vacation. This will be the twelfth convention since organization.

DEADLINE FOR FILING WITH COUNTY COMMITTEE IS SATURDAY, JUNE 18

Sixty-six candidates for the various county, district, precinct and state offices have filed their formal applications for places on the democratic primary ticket for the elections to be held during the summer. The applications are filed in the headquarters of the Navarro county democratic executive committee in the Daily Sun building.

Candidates for a number of justice of the peace and constable precincts have not filed their applications and are urged to attend to this matter at once.

The deadline for filing applications for place on the primary ticket is June 18.

Among those who have filed for places on the ticket and not previously reported are:
 J. E. Laney, Frost editor, justice of the peace, precinct 5.
 S. A. Johnston, Eureka, justice of the peace, precinct 1.
 Edward J. Farmer, Purdon 1, justice of the peace, precinct 5.
 Sam T. Curry, Frost 1, constable, precinct 5.

J. A. Stanford, Waco, associate justice of the peace court of civil appeals.
 O. F. Spurlock, Dawson, con-appeals.

R. A. Edens, Rice, constable, precinct 2.
 It is understood a number of the candidates for the precinct, county and district offices will appear in the interest of their respective candidates at Emhouse Friday night. No official announcement has been made, but it is understood this will officially inaugurate the speaking dates for the 1932 campaign in Navarro county.

TRINITY MIRAGE OF 1932 DEDICATED TO DRANE AND CHAPMAN

WAXAHACHIE, May 17.—(Spl.)—

The 1932 Mirage, Trinity University student yearbook, was formally dedicated to Frank N. Drane of Corsicana, a trustee of the institution since 1897, and O. H. Chapman of Waxahachie, a trustee since 1904, at chapel exercises Monday morning. The publication, was in charge of the program and presented books to the two trustees.

"Mr. Drane and Mr. Chapman have rendered a valuable service to Trinity University," Dr. S. L.
 Hornbeak, president emeritus of the institution, declared in a speech preceding the dedication.
 "These two men have given freely of their time, thought, money, and credit for Trinity. They have served without compensation, for their love of Trinity has caused them to work for her. Many former students of Trinity are now living better and more useful lives because of the work of these two men has enabled the school to be of more service to its students."

Both Mr. Drane and Mr. Chapman expressed their appreciation to Editor Hart and the students.
 The Mirage, an attractively bound book, used "Student Life" as its theme.

Members of the staff in addition to Mr. Hart are: W. Thompson, Billy Nesbitt, Tommie Espy, Marion Betts, Doris Pope Elza, Edgar Yinger, Harry Bounds, Carlton Allen, Mary Nell Cummings, Jimmie Brown, Clyde Ver-

Haynie Hotel Streetman Burned Early Tuesday

STREETMAN, May 17.—(Spl.)— Fire, thought to have started from defective wiring, completely destroyed the Haynie Hotel and contents here about 1:30 Tuesday morning. The loss was estimated at $5,000 and was only partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Charles Haynie, owner and a nephew, Louis Cogdell, were the only occupants of the building and they narrowly escaped burning to death. They were occupying downstairs rooms and when they awoke the entire upper story was in flames.
 The building, a two-story frame structure, was one of the oldest in Streetman.

POLICE DEPARTMENT CLEARS UP NUMBER RECENT BURGLARIES

Four youths ranging in age from 13 to 17 years have been connected with several recent petty thefts and burglaries in Corsicana, and officers are investigating several other cases. Chief of Police Will
 S. Knight reported Tuesday.

Two of the youths were arrested Sunday night for speeding, and theft of an automobile owned by the parents of one of the boys, and a considerable part of the stolen goods recovered. The chief intimated that charges would be filed against others before the completion of the search. The four youths were transferred to county authorities Monday afternoon.

According to police department records they admitted entering the Collins Cash Grocery on the night of May 1 through a skylight, securing about two and a half cartons of cigarettes which were sold. They also were reported to have admitted entering the Third Avenue Presbyterian church on two occasions, securing about 30 cents in money and some stamps;
 also to entering Temple Beth El some time ago and securing a number of light globes, part of which were recovered; to entering the First Baptist church and theft of a large electric fan, which was later sold and recovered by police

TRUCK WITH HOUSEHOLD GOODS GOES INTO DITCH
 NORTH OF CITY

Alvin Pinratt, negro, 22, was instantly killed, Mrs. J. Avnet, white woman, was severely injured and three others were slightly hurt about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning when the truck in which they were riding turned over at the intersection of the tie-in road and Highway 75 northeast of Corsicana.

The negro was hurled from the truck, striking a fence post. His neck was broken. Mrs. Avnet was pinned under the overturned truck but her injuries are not thought to be serious. Leon Avnet, son of the injured woman, received only a few scratches. Murphy Morris, negro, driver of the transfer truck, received severe bruises and abrasions about both legs and another negro riding on the truck was slightly injured. It was reported Tuesday morning.

The five were en route from Houston to Dallas transporting the household effects of Mrs.
 Avnet, it was stated.

The driver stated Tuesday he did not see the turn in the road, thinking the pavement extended straight ahead, until it was too late to make the turn. He attempted to make the curve, but the truck struck the soft shoulders on the highway, turning over into the barbed wire fence.

The truck was brought into Corsicana Tuesday morning for repairs.

Pinratt's body is being held at the Hardee Brothers Funeral Home, colored, pending funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Avnet was rushed to the Navarro Clinic in the Sutherland-McCammon ambulance for treatment.

officers Monday: to entering the Catholic church last Saturday night and theft of several small articles, part of which were recovered;
 theft of a pistol from an automobile on North Thirteenth street, which was also recovered Monday;
 and theft of some window weights from a house on North Seventh street.

The investigation was being continued Tuesday into a number of similar cases that have occurred in recent weeks.

SWIFT AND ARMOUR ASK RECONSIDERING HIGH COURT DECREE

ANOTHER HEARING ON MOD- IFICATION OF CONSENT DECREE IS SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(P)—Swift and Armour, and company today asked the supreme court to reconsider its recent decision refusing to modify the consent decree under which the packers are restricted to dealing only in products of slaughter houses.

The court reversed the action of the supreme court of the District of Columbia which had permitted the packers to handle groceries.

Five grounds were advanced for a rehearing, including that the decision was based on the erroneous assumption that the record showed the packers had violated the Sherman anti-trust law and that the court overlooked that the packers did not insist the fact the packers had consented to the original decree should be controlling.

Other contentions were that in considering the use of the packers' distributing system in handling groceries the court had misapprehended the original complaint and had overlooked changes which have occurred in the food industry since 1920; that the court assumed contrary to the record that the original decree was intended to protect the interest of certain classes, (such as the wholesale grocers associations) instead of the interest of the public as a whole and that the opinion ignoring the evidence and the finding of facts to the effect that a food monopoly was impossible.

FOREST FIRES IN CANADIAN SECTORS MORE MENACING

QUEBEC, May 19.—(P)—Forest fires in a score of heavily-wooded areas near Quebec and Toronto became more menacing as the third day of conflagration dawned and scores of small settlers' communities were hastily evacuated as the flames bore down on them.

Homes were razed, outlying schools deserted and an estimated amount of property loss suffered as the fires stubbornly refused to be brought under control.

Thousands of volunteer firemen were battling desperately, but were making slow progress. They were hampered by lack of modern apparatus but were working tirelessly in bucket brigades and had slowed up the march of destruction in many quarters.

The Restigouche county situation reached major proportions despite an army of volunteers working under the direction of forest rangers.

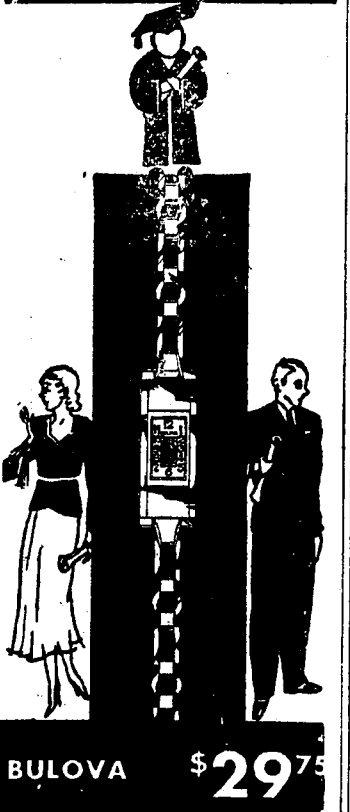

A group of settlers' homes in Rabinew township was destroyed and it looked as though the village of Bersimis was doomed.

Five new fires broke out late last night on crown land to the northwest corner of Northumberland, near Nepisiguit Lake.

At least two persons lost their lives, according to reports reaching here. Seventeen soldiers hurrying by motor truck to Valcartier Camp, near Quebec, were injured when the truck capsized.

SAFETY OF SIXTY AMERICANS FEARED FOR THROUGH REDS

TWENTY THOUSAND CHINESE COMMUNISTS REPORTED OVERRUNNING PROVINCE

NANKING, May 19.—(P)—The safety of 60 Americans, most of them missionaries, was threatened today at Pengpu by a host of 20,000 Chinese communists overrunning Northern Anwei province.

The communists had surrounded a force of 7,000 Nationalist troops west of Pengpu and threatened to cut the Tientsin-Pukow Railway south of there, blocking arrival of reinforcements.

Reports from Americans at Pengpu said they doubted the communists would be able to capture the city but the apprehension was acute.

The Chinese government rushed troops to Pengpu Monday at the request of the American Legation. Three thousand troops were sent from here and another division from Soochow. Apparently it was this force which was reported surrounded by the greatly superior force of communists.

The communists, who have been plundering wide area in Anhwei, Honan and other provinces in Central China, caused a general exodus of foreigners and Chinese alike from these territories.

The ability of the Nanking government to protect Pengpu or to oppose the communists effectively was considered doubtful here because of alleged failure to pay the government army which was sent against the rebels.

MISSISSIPPI SALES TAXATION PLAN GETTING UNDER WAY AND FIRST REPORT DUE JUNE 15TH

Younger Cemetery Officers Elected

JACKSON, Miss., May 19.—(P)—Mississippi, the first state to employ a general sales tax as an antidote for financial poisoning, will get an idea how successful its new two per cent levy is going to be June 15 when the taxpayers file their first monthly state reports.

The tax, provided with a view to balancing Mississippi's $20,000,000 biennial budget and placing the state back on a cash basis, became operative May 1 but the rough spots in collection already are disappearing.

Members of the state tax commission say merchants and the other payers, including virtually all who derive income from sales of goods or services, are co-operating fully toward making administration easy.

The general sales tax act as finally adopted, allows an annual exemption on the first $1,200 of individual receipts and then imposes a two per cent levy on gross sales of retail business, gross receipts of public utilities except industrial power, and on the gross income of all trades and professions requiring a practitioner's license, including doctors, lawyers and barbers.

The one per cent tax is collected on contractors, manufacturers of brick, tiles, pipe, cement and clay products, on bottlers of soft drinks, automobile sales, mining and production of minerals and industrial power sales. Fractional levies are assessed against receipts of cotton seed oil mills, tubbers and wholesalers and general manufacturers.

The levy specifically exempts sales of cotton and other farm products in their original state, fertilizer, seeds, books and crabs used for farm purposes.

HOMESICKNESS WAS BACK OF KIDNAPING STORY OF YOUNG MAN

SCRANTON, Pa., May 19.—(P)—A homesick young man who ran away last September after financial reverses admitted to police today that a fantastic kidnapping story which he hoped to disguise his movements was purely imaginative.

J. Drew Fague, 31-year-old justice of the peace and former Democratic nominee for congress, confessed he wrote the ransom demands his wife recently received and applied the adhesive tape which bound his mouth and hands when he was found lying beside a highway yesterday.

He related, after hours of questioning by detectives that he left his home near Williamsport last September intending never to return. He made his way to New Orleans, working en route, shipped aboard a fruit boat to Colombia, and returned to Boston last month.

The desire to see his wife and his home again became overpowering. He returned to Pennsylvania and early this month sent Mrs. Fague "ransom letters" from Reading, Bloomberg and Plymouth. Tuesday he decided to go home, he said, and taped himself up to give credence to his story of having been kidnapped.

Authorities said no charges would be made against him.

SIMPLE BUDDHIST FUNERAL SERVICE FOR SLAIN PREMIER

TOKYO, May 19.—(P)—A simple Buddhist funeral service, attended by 500 of Japan's leading public men who crowded into the public hall of the premier's residence, marked today the nation's farewell to the late Premier Suetsugu Inukai, slain last Sunday by a group of young assassins.

The Selyukai party, which the slain premier headed during the last two and one-half years of his half century in parliament, conducted the funeral services. The general public did not participate in the funeral ceremonies and there was no procession and no outside ceremonies.

As soon as the funeral ceremonies were ended, party leaders resumed parleys over the selection of a new cabinet.

The situation had cleared considerably today and the indication was that the army and political leaders had patched up their differences. The belief prevailed that the army would accept a cabinet which would be made up chiefly of members of the Selyukai party, but would contain also some others.

Many of the men in the communist army are former Nanking troops who were forced to resort to outlawry to obtain a living.

Beauty Chats

By Edna Kent Forbes

All requests for beauty information desired by Edna Kent Forbes column followers must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope (4. a. a. e.) and two cents in stamps to cover cost of printing and handling.

For the illustrated pamphlet, "BEAUTY," ten cents in stamps with fully s.a.s.e. must be enclosed. Address Miss Forbes in care of this paper.

Beauty Costs Nothing.
For the woman with next to nothing a year, Miss Forbes' column offers daily valuable suggestions today is a beauty budget needing almost no money.

What about a beauty budget for the woman with practically nothing a year? Can she have creams and lotions, bleaches, astringents and nice soothing treatments and yet spend almost no money? She can—if she watches this column for ideas.

Instead of cleansing cream, she can use olive oil. This can be bought most cheaply from the Italian grocery stores—otherwise, a quart bottle of it from any grocery, kept in a cool place, will last a year and serve as a cleanser, a hot oil treatment for the scalp, as a massage cream—for olive oil is nourishing—and to keep the cuticle of the nails soft and smooth during and after a manicure. A note: Better than ice to make the pores fine to reduce a double chin, to make a flabby chin smooth. Use after an oil massage for a dry skin, and without it for a greasy one. Hand lotion—cooked cucumbers. Slice a ten-cent one, stew it, press the juice through a sieve. Add to this about half of its own amount of rubbing alcohol (which is very cheap) and you have a lotion that bleaches, dries without being too sticky, and keeps the skin smooth.

To clear the skin and keep it soft and fine, a lotion of some fine complexion soap. A five-cent one will last six months. Two 50c boxes of face powder will do you a year. A 25c box of rouge will last the same time. Two 50c lipsticks will last a year. They are not as good as the expensive sort—but then, you need not use any, you know. A dollar manicure set will last you most of a year, with care. Lemon juice is the best bleach for finger nails, but you need an occasional 25c bottle of cuticle solvent. Two or three a year at most. One comes with the manicure set.

E. M. J.—You will be able to make your light hair darker in shade if you give it a henna shampoo. This will also give a somewhat coppery tint that will make the shade much richer than if you aimed to have just a simple light brown color. You will have to use a dye to give you the brown color, while henna is not a dye, and the possibilities of shading through careful use with it are much better than through using most dyes. It may require several experiments before you will be sure of the length of time needed for you to produce the required shade, so it is advisable to make the length of time for the shampoo lather to remain on hair about three minutes. You will know from that first effect how much longer time is needed for tinting in the next shampoo. Coat hair with a little more time for tinting than fine hair.

P. E.—Any fine oil soap, such as those made from olive oil, will agree with your skin, no matter what condition it is in. Plenty of rinsing is necessary after using any soap on the skin, and it may be just that which causes the sensitiveness after you have bathed. Mary T.—Epsom salts may be used for cleansing the face, just as it is used for baths of the entire body. In the facial bath it would be made a bit stronger than for the full bath, and used only when the pores are very much clogged. As such baths open pores a great deal, they must be closed in the case of the face by very cold water, and some cream rubbed into the skin if it feels very dry.

ROADS FOR HIGHWAY TOWARD POWELL NOT BE LET THIS MONTH REASON FOR WITHDRAWAL PROJECT FROM MAY MEET- ING NOT KNOWN HERE

Bids for the construction of 8.8 miles of 20-foot concrete pavement on Highway 31 from Corsicana to Waco, 31 miles east of Powell will not be called for at the regular meeting of the highway commission in Austin, May 26-27, according to L. E. Bowers, resident state highway engineer, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bowers said he had prepared the advertisement for the construction of this slab and that he had been placed on the list for letting May 27-28, but that he had received the cancellation orders Tuesday. He said there were 18 other projects cancelled from this letting.

Mr. Bowers said he did not know any reason for the withdrawal of this project from the scheduled letting unless it was that O. E. Kirchner, Austin, federal highway engineer, scheduled to inspect the project on May 27-28, but that he had been cancelled and finally approved the project.

Local officials and road enthusiasts are hopeful this road will be rushed to completion this year for a number of reasons. Highway 31 between Waco and Austin is either constructed or scheduled to be paved within the near future. The road from Corsicana to Trinity river is the only one not under contract or scheduled to be let at the next meeting. The road from the district line to Trinity river via Kerens, a distance of slightly over 10 miles, has not been put up for letting.

Some are of the opinion the highway commission may decide to hold up the 8.8 miles in the district and let the entire distance in this county at the same time.

FARMERS WARNED GRASSHOPPERS ARE TO MAKE RAVAGES

There is danger of grasshopper damage to crops and gardens in Navarro county during the summer months, according to a communication sent to Clay Nash, Navarro county judge, by R. R. Reppert, extension entomologist, and E. V. Walter of the San Antonio office of the bureau of entomology.

The heaviest hatching in years has been reported in a number of Texas counties this spring.

"The grasshoppers are still small," said Mr. Reppert, "but by early June, if the weather turns off dry and warm, they will have reached sufficient size to be a real menace to cotton and other crops. They are injuring gardens now in many localities."

The following control measure is recommended:

Course wheat bran, twenty-five pounds; Paris green or white arsenic, one pound; high-grade amyl acetate, one ounce; (avoid cheap grades of kerosene oil or bronzing fluid, but six lemons, rind and juice ground together, may be substituted if amyl acetate is not available); cane or sorghum molasses, two quarts, and one pound of common salt, with water to make a mash that is quite moist and may be broadcast easily.

The above mash should be broadcast to cover five acres and should not be placed in piles.

Work of Remodeling Hopkins Gin Burned Last Fall Started

Work of remodeling the Hopkins Gin Company plant on East Fifth avenue which was burned last fall, started Tuesday. New equipment is being placed in the building and when the work is completed the plant will be one of the most modern in this section of Texas.

A contract for new equipment costing $6,400 has been let, the owners have announced.

The gin will be ready for business when cotton picking starts next fall.

Guile Divided And Reunited Two Famous Bible Brothers

Angry Esau And Scared Jacob Get Together in True
Oriental Fashion -- Chapters In a Romantic Life

Story -- Wrestling Match in Trans-Jordan

Our next-door neighbor may not be as well known to us as Jacob and Esau, and the other outstanding characters of the Old Testament. This is one of the unconscious tributes we pay to the vividness and literary power of the Bible. In compact phrases, these Bible stories are more vividly told than by fat novels. (And what a storehouse of material the Bible has been for novelists!)

Jacob and Esau were two unworthy sons of a great line. The older, Esau, a glutton, had been cheated by Jacob, the schemer. Esau had gone east to Edom and the desert, where he became a great sheik. Jacob, scared, had been sent from home to put him out of reach of Esau's vengeance; and he had gone far away to Haran, to find a wife among his mother's kindred. The old home was left empty.

Two Sharpers Meet
Romance entered Jacob's life when he met and married Leah, his cousin Rachel. Her father drove a hard bargain with him, stipulating that he should serve seven years for his wife. Then, at the end of seven years, Esau, who had returned from the desert, came back. He was a powerful man, and he was angry with Jacob for having deceived him. He wanted to kill Jacob, but Jacob fled to the desert, where he lived in caves for many years.

In passing, it is to be recalled that Rachel died in giving birth to Benjamin, on the journey which is our lesson. Her tomb still stands on the old road just north of Bethlehem, a venerated Moslem shrine; in which, however, the Jews had lately established some "rights." In all the world there is only one of their sacred places and graves that really belongs to the Jews; the tomb of Esther, at Hamadan.

Danger Ahead
But to return to Laban and Jacob. It was a case of Jew against Jew. Laban was a family trickster; but Jacob outmatched him. The result was that the best of Laban's possessions gradually passed into the hands of Jacob; and, at the end of 20 years, and of it was a final row, and setting up of the Mizpah stones, with the covenant, "The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another." Lovers engrave this sentiment on rings, and Christian Endeavor societies use it as a watchword; although the real meaning seems to be: "May the Lord keep His eye upon you when you are hidden from me; for I don't trust you."

Safe from Laban's vengeance Jacob and his mighty caravan of servants and flocks and herds, took up his journey again, with only his wronged brother to fear in front of him.

That was no small danger. Esau was a wild and vengeful Bedouin delighting in raids and in revenge; accustomed to swift attacks upon the camps of neighbors and foes. His way still persists in the east. The pilgrims from Haran were now in Esau's territory. Frightened and penitent, Jacob spent bitter, sleepless nights musing upon the bad bargain he had made when he cheated his brother out of his birthright, and out-of his father's blessing. Ah, could we but look ahead to the consequences of the selfish follies of youth!

A Scared Man's Guile
All of this story is oriental. It must be read in the light of the land where it was enacted. Jacob's clever planning and abject praying were typical. He divided his possessions so that at least half might escape. Then he sent emissaries ahead with lavish gifts to propitiate Esau. Apparently five delegations went forward, one after the other, each with a flock and hard representing wealth. The idea was to appease Esau by a succession of lavish gifts, accompanied by appropriate argument. As I read the story I recall the long procession of Chinese merchants in Peking, whom I once saw on the way to the palace of the pig-tailed general who had, overnight, restored the Chinese monarchy. Each was accompanied by servants, each with a flock of gifts. I have seen a horde of hostile Arabs bearing down upon me in the desert; and they were a terrifying sight, one of my narrowest escapes from death. So I can understand Jacob's feelings as he watched Esau, and his company of 400 warriors, riding down upon his camp, the men performing feats of horsemanship and camel control, waving their spears, with their long cloaks ballooning in the breeze, while the air was filled with wild ululations. Poor, scared Jacob!

In the Meantime
All of this took place in a region easily identified today. Bible Land routes are marked permanently in the topography of the country. This scene centered by the ford of the Jabbok. I have carried there for lunch, while our automobile waited by the rough trail. As I look back upon it, perhaps we should not have been such a merry company; for we were on holy ground, where a distraught patriarch had once wrestled all night with an emissary of Jehovah, so that he called the place Peniel, because he had been face to face with God.

Jacob became a different man at the ford of the rippling Jabbok. His fright may have been a causative factor in his change; even as these dreadful days or turning many otherwise careless and selfish spirits to self-examination and to thoughts of God. Jacob's dramatic struggle with a mysterious visitor throughout a long night, the silence broken only by the music of the howling wind, the howl of a jackal, left him a changed man, with a new name and a new nature. Jacob, "the supplanter," had become Israel, "one who has power with God." Sudden conversions are no new thing in religious history. The ceaseless wonder is that he who submits to God may get a new nature, and a new name, or reputation.

Despite its intensity, its suspense, its drama, its artifices, its frights, this is a story with a happy ending. Both brothers found their new and better selves. The change had been long in coming; but it had come at last; and the prayers of Abraham and Isaac were seeing fulfillment.

An old clergyman, who himself had a wastrel son, once said to me, "We do not read aright the Scripture, 'Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.' The emphasis should be upon, 'When he is old.' He may wander for a time in youth; but eventually he will come back to his parents' standards."

That is happening today. There are many signs that the world is getting over its post-war orgy of moral and mental anarchy. Myriads, like Jacob, are being scared into a turning to the right way. And like him, they are seeking reconciliation with the past where their misconduct lay. For, as in the writings of the Old Testament, peace and righteousness dwell together.

Terrell Stands On Record In Asking For Re-election

TYLER, May 19.—(P)—C. V. Terrell stood for re-election as state railroad commissioner today on what he termed a record of accomplishment.

Opening his campaign here last night, he discussed the many angles of the commission's work and declared that out of 15,000 cases decided by that body only four had been reversed by the courts.

Since the commission began regulation of motor trucks and busses, he said, there has not been a serious accident to a passenger due to negligence of drivers.

He defended constitutionality of proration.

He himself and is chairman of the board of directors of the First National Bank, in which capacity he has served since organization of the bank. Mr. Boyd is farmer and land owner, as well as owner of a number of producing oil wells.

Pacific Flyer Plans to Refuel After Hopping Off

SEATTLE, Wash., May 19.—(P)—A plan to refuel in the air after taking off from Boeing field was considered today by Nathan C. (Nat) Browne, New York flier, if test flights show he will be unable to get his heavily laden ship off from the ground on a projected Seattle-Tokyo flight.

The first of a series of test flights, with a half-load, will be made during the day, he said, to determine how his huge red monoplane, the "Lone Star," will perform. When fully loaded, the tanks will carry more than 1000 gallons of gasoline.

When given weather reports last night Browne said he would be ready to leave "any time after Friday."

A prize of $30,000 for the Seattle-Tokyo flight will expire on June 1.

College President Liquor Case Witness

AMARILLO, May 19.—(P)—Testimony of a college president was included today in the government's case against 16 men on trial here on charges of liquor operations in Gray county.

Dr. Tom W. Bradham, president of Texas Woman's College, testified yesterday as to his efforts to clean up Pampa when he was a minister there.

He described what appeared to be a liquor transaction by Roy Abbitton with former sheriff E. S. Graves and two deputies present. Abbitton, the sheriff and the deputies are defendants.

Charges liquor was sold under protection of officers were made by other witnesses.
